FOREWORD

IN JUNE 1962 THE DOORS OF JOHN GRAHAM HIGH SCHOOL CLOSE FOREVER ON THE ACTIVITIES OF THE CLASS OF '62. THEY CAN NEVER CLOSE, HOWEVER, ON ALL THE MEMORIES OF WORK AND PLAY THAT THE CLASS WILL TAKE AWAY. MEMORIES OF CLASSES, HOMEWORK, AND PROJECTS, HOURS OF PRACTICE, BALL GAMES, AND PRECIOUS VICTORIES - ALL ARE PART OF A SENIOR'S LEGACY FROM HIS ALMA MATER.

THE STAFF OF THE 1962 WARRENTONIAN PRESENTS TO THE SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY IN WORDS AND PICTURES EVENTS THAT HAVE MADE UP THE 1961-1962 SCHOOL YEAR. REALIZING THAT SCHOOL MEANS MANY THINGS TO MANY PEOPLE, WE HAVE TRIED TO INCLUDE THOSE PEOPLE AND EVENTS SIGNIFICANT TO THE STUDENT BODY AS A WHOLE, AS WELL AS EXPERIENCES MEANINGFUL TO SMALLER GROUPS . . .

CONTENTS

. . . A KALEIDOSCOPE OF SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

WHICH WE HOPE WILL ENHANCE THE MEMORIES OF THE PAST YEAR.

DEDICATION

Charles E. Parker, Jr.

A 1961 graduate of Wake Forest College, Charles Parker, Jr., came to John Craham as a teacher and coach. Young, virtually inexperienced, he immediately made a tremendous impression on our student body. His warmth and sincerity have endeared him to all of his football players, whom he guided to a conference championship. His success is mirrored again in two of his boys for whom he engineered grants-in-aid.

From the word GO, Coach Parker is a competitor. In his pupils and in his teams he instills the desire to be their best and do their best both as individuals and groups.

To his boys, he has become more than a coach. He is their friend - always personally concerned, always ready to help.

Because of his lasting devotion to young people and to their problems, and because of his invaluable contribution to school life, we proudly dedicate the 1962 Warrentonian to Coach Parker.

BRENDA DAVIS

Brenda thrives on activity, and competition enhances her enthusiasm. Whether she is firing missiles at the elusive hoop, cheering the boys to victory, or leading the '61 Seniors to their graduation, Brenda manifests the vigorous school spirit and will to win that has made her so popular with her classmates.

She has excelled in almost every phase of school activity. Her grades brought her the honor of marshal and Beta Club membership. On the basketball team, she has started at forward for her junior and senior years, and she has served as co-editor of both the Seer and the French newspaper, the Chantclair.

Brenda plans to attend Woman's College, major in mathematics, and break into the male world of facts and figures.

Throughout her four years of high school, Brenda has typified the avid fan and active participant, and has provided a fine example for lower classmen to follow.

BOB FLEMING

Whether he is presiding at assembly or sketching a difficult annual layout, Bob demonstrates the competence that has earned him approval of both fellow students and faculty.

Bob has served all the organizations of which he has been a member in high school in major offices - FFA, annual staff, French Club, Student Council, and athletics - with a letter in basketball. Because of scholastic achievement he was a marshal in his junior year.

Last spring, members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship elected him president of the Raleigh District MYF, where his activities have brought recognition to his local group and to his church.

Future plans for Bob include summer work, State College in the fall, and a degree in architecture in five years - "If I can make it," Bob says. His record at John Graham indicates that he will.

CAROLYN SHEARIN

Typing, planning, writing copy - there is always something to be done for the annual, and Carolyn is always ready for the job.

The ability to write well is only one of Carolyn's many qualifications for a place of leadership. She has held positions of responsibility in basketball, on the Seer staff, in FTA, French Club, Monogram Club, Student Council, and other service groups. As one of the outstanding seniors in the class of '62, Carolyn has received the well-deserved recognition of her classmates.

Continued study at Woman's College or Greensboro College will be the next step in the career which Carolyn has begun with distinction.

"Where the willingness is great, the difficulties cannot be great." That Carolyn has the willingness is proved by her record at John Graham, and success is sure to follow her.

GORDON HAITHCOCK

For the past four years, sports fans at JGHS have thrilled to the lithe, agile form of Gordon Haithcock on the playing field. A regular starter on all three teams for his sophomore, junior, and senior years, Gordon has run away with honors. Voted outstanding freshman athlete in 1959, Gordon has since been named best all-around athlete (1960-'61) and placed on the All-Conference and All-East football teams. He has signed a full grant-in-aid at the University of North Carolina. If past record is any sign of future accomplishment, Gordon is headed for at least four more years as a gridiron stalwart.

In addition to football, Gordon enjoys basketball, baseball, golf, tennis, swimming, and - of course - girls. He enjoys life and never lets work get him down. His affable disposition has made him many friends, in and out of school. The void which he leaves here will indeed be hard to fill.

ANNE TWITTY

Picture to be drawn? Ask Anne - Job to be done? Get Anne - Dependability, coupled with more than her share of talent, have made Anne Twitty one of the most successful girls in school.

Industrious and clever, she had the responsibility for almost all of the art work that went into the '62 Warrentonian. Her grades should place her in the top bracket at St. Mary's Junior College, which she plans to attend.

Here at John Graham, Anne has maintained an average in the upper 90's. She was chosen DAR Good Citizen and she served as a marshal. In addition to excelling in her school work, Anne has participated actively in the Children of the Confederacy and is currently serving as state president.

At St. Mary's, Anne plans to take some art and to major in English. She looks forward to a possible teaching career afterwards.

BILL TAYLOR

Bill's responsibilities as senior class president have been exceeded only by the capability with which he has guided the class of '62 through decisions - major and minor - of the senior year, into plans for graduation, and finally, through the strenuous week of graduation itself.

Training for leadership began early in his high school career for Bill - in both extracurricula and scholastic activities - athletics, band, Beta Club, publications, and the office of chief marshal.

During the summer before graduating, recognition beyond the school came to Bill. He spent one week at UNC as delegate to Boys' State and six weeks at Western Carolina College in an advanced math institute.

The future? After John Graham, Davidson or Carolina - After college, law school - All in all, an enviable start for even greater accomplishments.

NANCY WILSON

The crisp autumn breeze ruffled her hair, and the bright lights lent their glow to her cheeks, as pretty Nancy Wilson was crowned Homecoming Queen for the 1961 football season. Her coronation delighted her many friends and supporters, and highlighted an already successful record. Smiling, bright-eyed Nancy has won the hearts of all who know her.

For the past three years, Nancy has played first-team guard for the girls' basketball team. She was chosen freshman girl athlete of the year in 1959, and co-captain for the 1961-'62 season.

In addition to Homecoming Queen, she has been secretary of the Student Council, president of the 4-H Club, and cheerleader.

After high school, Nancy plans to attend East Carolina and study history. She has left a deep impression on her alma mater, for a more popular girl never attended John Graham - nor did a truer friend ever leave.

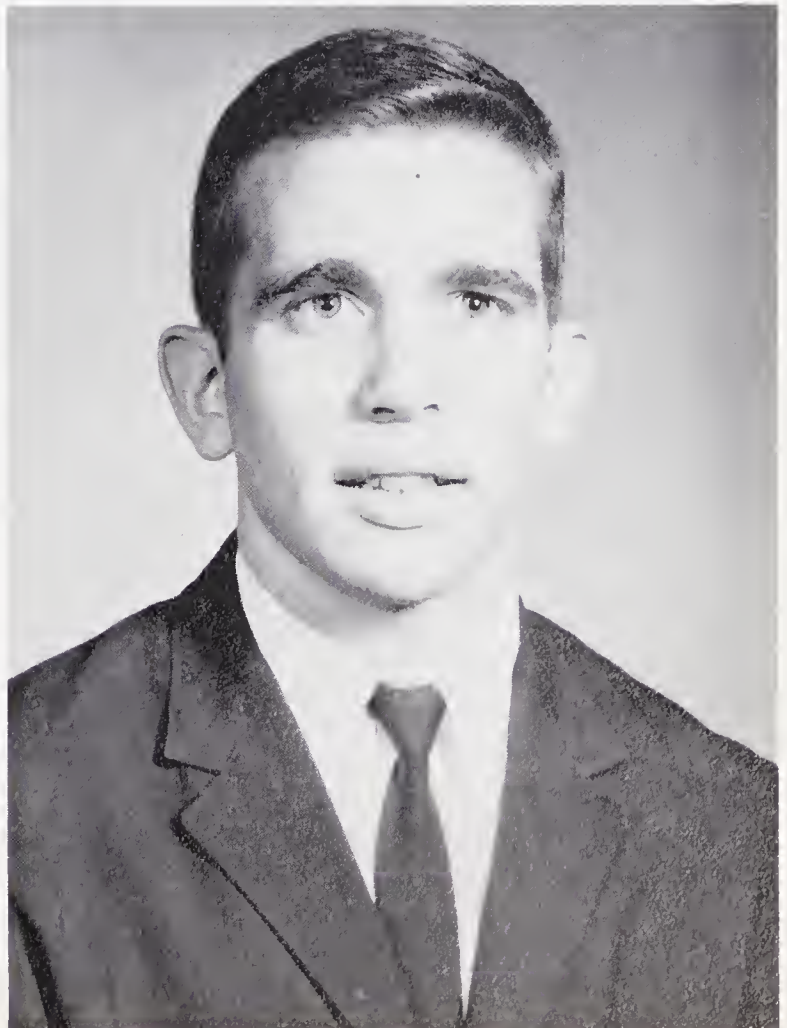

RICHARD WILLIAMS

Where would the annual have been without Richard? For that matter, what would school have been without him - his smile as he guided freshmen to their room - his challenging voice over the intercom to the rooms, "Totals for the magazine drive today are . . ."? Throughout high school years Richard has proved both a willing follower and a capable leader. His friends showed confidence in his ability by electing him treasurer of the Student Council and president of the junior class. He served capably as business manager of the annual and engineered the most successful magazine sales campaign in the history of the school.

Richard likes the outdoors. He played football, and currently enjoys hunting, swimming, and golf.

As reward for his excellent grades, he was selected a marshal and inducted into the Beta Club.

Richard's record at John Graham suggests great accomplishments in years ahead.

FOOTBALL

Under the capable direction of two new coaches, Charles Parker and Jimmie Webb, John Graham Yellowjackets rolled to their first conference championship in 12 years with a conference record of five wins and no defeats and an overall record of nine and two.

In post-season play the boys advanced to the district playoff finals by avenging a previous defeat at the hands of the Spring Hope Raiders. Only a field goal by Windsor in the final seventeen seconds of play kept them from bringing the championship home.

The conference honored Warrenton by selecting eight of their gridders to the all-conference team. First team: backs, Clinton Neal and Gordon Haithcock; linemen, Herman Rooker, George Pittard, and Billy Rogers. Second team: backs, Billy Mitchiner and Steve Clark; lineman, Wilson Bolton.

All things considered, the Yellowjackets had their most successful season in many years.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Basketball practice for the 1961-62 season began late as a result of post-season football games. Boys made the transition quickly, however, and took up with enthusiasm the play patterns and shooting-passing drills.

The yellow jackets lost no members via graduation from last year's cage team, which went to district eliminations in Rocky Mount. The team will still lack the one tall boy, but capable shooters like Clinton Neal, Herman Rooker, and Chocky White; defensive standout and playmaker Gordon Haithcock; and reliable all-arounders Johnny Link, Billy Mitchiner, and Therman Rooker should make up in speed and accuracy for the deficit.

Coach Parker and the boys, with greater depth and unity, should improve considerably on last year's 13-10 record.

Rooker hauls one down for the yellow jackets with Neal (76) and Benson (25) standing by to assist.

Co-captains and Coach: Nancy Wilson, Miss Janice Allen, and Brenda Davis.

Ranks thinned considerably by graduation, the John Graham Lady Jackets began practice early in November. Determined to make up in spirit what they had lost in personnel, the girls worked long and hard in the gym.

The striking attack this year could be built around sophomore Knox Polk, who leads the team in shooting, with Brenda Davis and Sandra Jones handling the other forward chores. At guard, veterans Nancy Wilson, Virginia Robertson, and newcomer Margaret Carroll, a senior seeing her first regular action could cut down considerably an opponent's scoring.

The Lady Jackets, lacking in depth but strong on hustle, should present John Graham with a very successful season.

Coach Parker demonstrates the proper bunt to Wilson Bolton and Tommy Twitty.

The boys who make up this year's baseball team have been playing together in organized baseball for at least six years - in summer leagues and in high school. Familiar with their positions and with each other, they play well together. On pitching and defensive, the team is strong, with ample talent seasoned by experience.

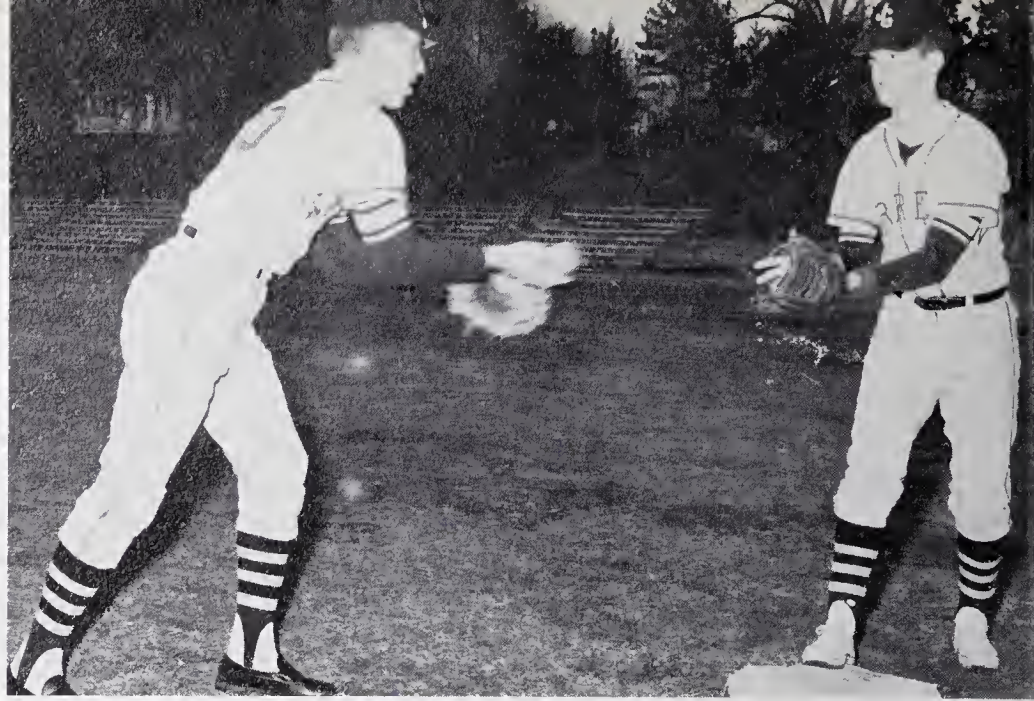

Hitting, a weakness for the past two years, should improve as greater emphasis is placed upon it.

Capable yellow jackets promise to reach their peak this season, as the JG diamond witnesses one of the most successful seasons in a number of years.

THE TWELFTH OF NEVER

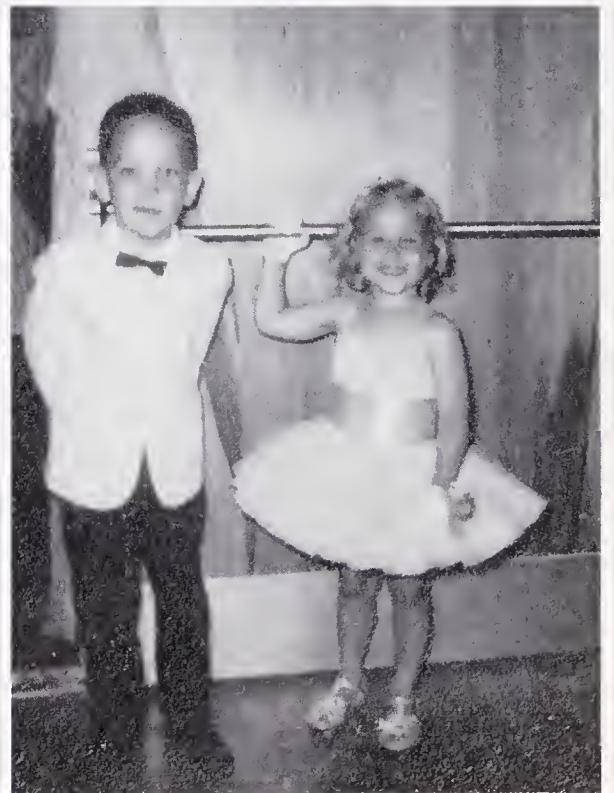

To the class of '62, their Junior-Senior Prom meant days of planning, months of gathering and ordering supplies, and one week of backbreaking work. Every night they worked until worried parents forced them home. Discontent and internal problems vanished as the class turned into a cooperative, hard-working unit.

And finally, on the big night - the gym looked beautiful. The boys were resplendent in white dinner jackets and the girls were beautiful and sophisticated in long formals. The night ended too soon, for the Juniors and Seniors could have danced 'til dawn. The class of '62 will long remember May 12, 1961 as

THE TWELFTH OF NEVER.

LE VOICI

with Apologies to Kipling

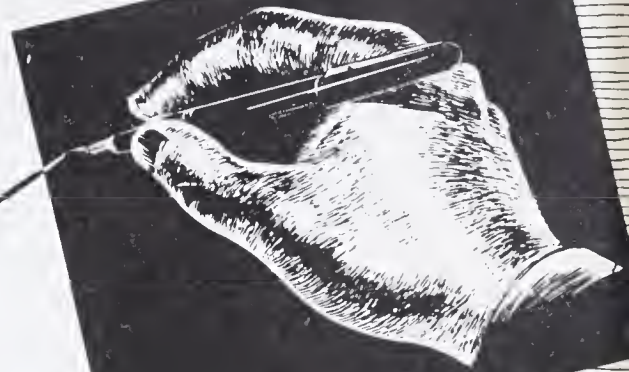

When the annual's last page is drawn, and the pencils are thrown aside,
When the newest ideas seem jaded, and the copy writers are tired,
We shall rest, and, faith, we shall need it--stop work for an aeon or two
But without some annual staff meetings, we'll hardly know what to do!

The pages that are good shall be lauded--shall receive all the credit due
--But we shall be hid in a closet 'til all the reviews are through.
We'll remember the hours we spent here, in spring and summer and fall,
That we worked for ages on a couple of pages and never sat down at all!

And only our friends will praise us, and only our critics will blame,
Though no one has worked for money and no one has worked for fame;
But each for the joy of working, and each in his separate star,
Has shown the year as we saw it, for your memory of things as they are.
